Q: Getting incorrect value on input text in jQuery I am trying to get values from multiple inputs using jQuery but, for some reason I am getting the wrong value on each input and I don't know why. Any help would be appreciated. Here is the code I am using:

$("#one,#two,#three").on("keyup change", function() { var one = $("#one").val(); var two = $("#two").val(); var three = $("#three").val();
alert(one+', '+two+', '+three); });

 Here is a fiddle link: Thanks in advance. A: The problem is that the keyup is firing when you enter the textbox. You should use `.change()` instead. `$("#one,#two,#three").on("change", function() { var one = $("#one").val(); var two = $("#two").val(); var three = $("#three").val(); alert(one+', '+two+', '+three); });` Fiddle Pens Basketball: Winning Is In Their DNA, Next Goal is Return to Stanley Cup Final Related Tags: PHILADELPHIA (CBS) – It's all a very big mystery to the Penguins, the same way it's a big mystery to everyone.
